An Ex-Judge and One of the Best Lawyers in Virginia

Who lives 82 miles from Richmond wrote us yesterday about a matter in which he represents this Company, and closed his letter in these words:

> "I have been consulted in matter of drawing a will, and I hope to get this party to appoint your Company as Trustee under the provisions of the trust clause of the will. The estate is one of considerable size."

This enables us to make the point, that experienced lawyers recognize the superior safety of committing trust funds to a strong institution, whose principal business it is to handle estates, rather than to individuals.

And we will stake our reputation upon the proposition, that we can demonstrate this fact to any person interested in the matter.
